Family School Partnership

The majority of dad's will say their relationship with their children is very important to them. Children are just as keen to have a loving relationship with their dads. This week we have uploaded three easy to read articles onto our website which talk about this very special relationship and how to nourish it. The articles are headed:

1) What kids learn from fathers
2) Building up Frequent Father Points
3) Being a Great Dad

We hope you are able to find some time to have a look at them.

Wishing all our dads a very special day on Sunday.

Julie Kindellan